BROWN Collection

The Brown Collection makes a bold statement with a design motif achieved through the use of reveals. Horizontal and vertical reveal details accent table base ends, showcasing a strong, clean line design. Originally designed for the U.S. Courthouse Libraries, the Brown Collection featured contemporary solid wood, panel tables. Inset wood veneer tops and solid wood square edges grace each table giving the collection its handsome yet simple style.

Melding metal and wood, the Brown Collection bridges the gap between traditional and contemporary. Optional metal reveals serve to highlight the Brown Collection's flawless lines and solid construction. Striking and enduring, the Brown Collection includes study tables, book tables, carrels, atlas and dictionary stands, end panels, shelving and reference desks. Visit www.agati.com to see more.
