Crisp, clean lines describe the modern transitional style of the Ella chair. A strong rectilinear frame and angular back posts prove to be durable and supportive, while offering a sit that is both comfortable and generous.

Versatility abounds in the Ella's numerous seat and back options. The Ella's mid-height back is available in ladder or panel style with a grid detail. Pair with a carved, wood saddle or upholstered seat, or choose a fully upholstered version for heightened comfort and a diversified look.
