PRIMA Side Chair

The Prima chair's essence is captured in its subtle curves, sculpted arms and refined detail, invoking an air of charm and grace. Delicately tapered front legs give way to sturdy canted rear legs, striking a balance between style and durability. With a mid-height back and generous seat, the Prima chair provides comfort as well as enduring beauty.

Styling options include an arched panel back or a three-rail ladder-back enhanced by a reveal. Select a carved wood saddle seat or an upholstered seat with any of the Prima's back options. Visit agati.com to view more.
